

In Loving Memory Of Lloyd H. Hawley

Who Departed This Life 27
Years Ago, Feb. 4, 1956

*Always kind to us was he,
Always good and brave and true,
Tho' his tasks were often heavy,
He would always see them through.
Never craved for fame or fortune,
Never sought the spotlights glare.
Always working, sacrificing,
Never failed to do his share.
Now he's resting up in heaven,
In that blessed land above
Where there is no pain or sorrow,
Only joy and peace and love.*

Sadly missed by wife children and grandchildren.
