The ladies aid of Porter church will meet at Mrs. W. C. Wood's Wednesday, June 16, at 10 a. m. Work for Mrs.
Wood. All are cordially invited.

John Hawley, a pioneer of Porter, died at his home in this township, Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, aged 80 years. Death resulted from paralysis from which he has been suffering for two years. Mr. Hawley was born in New York, and came to this state 40 years ago, moving onto the farm where he died. A widow, four sons and one daughter, Mrs. E. N. Tracy, survive him. Two sons live in Kansas and the other two in the northern part of this state. The funeral was held from the house yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. S.
Williams officiating.

ANTWERP.

Last Friday afternoon the closing exercises for the school year were held at the school house in district No. 5.
The pupils, under the direction of their teacher, Lowell A. Packer, gave an unusually interesting program of essays, recitations, etc.
