

GOSPEL SERVICES CLOSE AT PROVIDENCE CHURCH.

WINDSOR, June 9.—The Gospel services in Providence church continued nine days, closing June 7th. People came from the country 'round about and much interest was manifested.

Rev. Geo. Henderson of Webster, Fla., preached in unction of Holy Spirit, "The Word," emphasizing doctrines of justification and sanctification, the washing away of sins, and cleansing from sin. Sins, all defilement of spirit and body, are the outcrop of sin in the heart. Jesus came to condemn (take away) sin in the flesh. "In Him was no sin." "As He was so are we in this world." "He that hath hope of seeing Him purifieth himself even as He (Jesus) is pure." "Those who climb up some other way are thieves and robbers."

We trust and pray that the Holy Spirit will brood over the seed sown, that sin shall no longer reign in our mortal bodies. Our hearts follow Brother Henderson in praise and prayer, that God will annoint and use him more and more to uncover and dethrone sin in the heart.
